Five Jersey City cops each brought home more than $50,000 in overtime last year, with one officer making $83,249, nearly matching his base salary, according to payroll documents reviewed by The Jersey Journal.

In all, Jersey City cops earned $6.6 million in overtime last year.

The two police officers who topped all others in overtime pay last year, Anthony Chiusolo and Anthony Bell, each worked about 1,000 hours of overtime, logging anywhere from eight to 81 hours overtime during two-week
